

Sponsored by

The Miami-Florida European Union Center of Excellence

&

Co-sponsored by

The Ruth K. & Shepard Broad International Series

&

The European Studies Program

Lecture

“The EU, International Organizations and Global Governance”

Monday, October 13, 2008
2:00 p.m. –3:30 p.m.

FIU, University Park
International Pavilion, MARC Building

Dr. Roger A. Coate

*Distinguished Professor of Political Science
University of South Carolina*

Dr. Roger Coate is Distinguished Professor of Political Science and former Director of the Richard L. Walker Institute of International Studies at the University of South Carolina. Professor Coate's research and teaching interests focus on multilateral relations, international organization and global governance. His specific areas of expertise include: international organization reform, the role of civil society in global governance, and U.S. multilateral foreign policy. He is author or co-author of more than a dozen books and monographs, including: United Nations Politics: Responding to a Challenging World; The United Nations and Changing World Politics; International Cooperation in Response to AIDS; United States Policy and the Future of the United Nations; and Unilateralism, Ideology and United States Foreign Policy: The U.S. In and Out of UNESCO.

Dr. Coate is currently the Chair of the International Organization Section of the International Studies Association (ISA) and has been President of the ISA South Region. He has been recipient of numerous awards and honors, including: “Best New Journal in the United States in 1996 in Business, the Social Sciences, and the Humanities” from the Association of American Publishers for his work as founding editor of Global Governance: A Review of Multilateralism and International Organizations.

SIPA

School of International and Public Affairs

For Additional information:

Christine I. Caly-Sanchez—Tel: 305.348.5949. e-mail: calyc@fiu.edu

MEUC Web: www.miamieuc.org