

The Jean Monnet Chair, in cooperation with the Miami-Florida European Union Center of Excellence, a partnership with Florida International University, and the School of Business of the University of Miami, cordially invites you to a guest lecture:

“EU’s Justice, Freedom and Security Policies: Immigration, citizenship and police cooperation”

When: Monday, October 15, 2007, 3:00:4:00 pm

Where: GB 532, School of Business Administration, Coral Gables Campus, University of Miami

Caroline Bradley

University of Miami, Law School

For information on the EU Center:
Astrid Boening
ASTRIDBOENING1@aol.com
305.284.3266

Caroline Bradley, professor of law, began her academic career in 1986, serving as a lecturer in law at the London School of Economics and Political Science. She obtained her LL.M. (first class) from Jesus College, Cambridge, in 1984, and qualified as a solicitor before joining the LSE faculty. Professor Bradley, who joined the Law School faculty in 1992, has written widely on matters of British and European financial law. At the University of Miami, she teaches courses in European Community law, United States securities regulation, international finance, and business associations