University of Miami Ambassador Application

Overview
UM Ambassadors are a prestigious and diverse group of dynamic volunteer student leaders and the student face of the University of Miami Alumni Association. Ambassadors serve as liaisons between UM students and alumni, plan and participate in events to raise awareness of UMAA benefits and services, and participate in programs and network opportunities such as, but not limited to, Pep Rallies, The Official Class Ring Program, the Care Package Program, and Alumni Weekend and Homecoming.

Being a student at UM is just the beginning! If you are a creative student leader with a love for your alma mater and an interest in educating the University of Miami Community about the importance of staying connected and your UM Alumni Association, then consider applying to be a UM Ambassador!

The guiding principle of being a UM Ambassador is PRIDE!
- Professional and Social Networking
- Recruiting fellow students to attend Ambassador supported events.
- IBIS- Sports related programming
- Devotion to Community
- Educational Event

Eligibility Requirements:
- Current students enrolled full-time at the University of Miami and considered in good standing.
- Maintain a minimum of a 3.0 cumulative grade point average.
- A commitment to attend meetings, events, and participate in a sub-committee (approximately 15 hours per semester).
- Display leadership, maturity, and good judgment at all times.
- Fulfill the role as a student representative of the University and the alumni community.

Benefits of being a UM Ambassador:
- Ability to interact with alumni, donors, and key UM Alumni Association leaders
- Invitations to exclusive UM Alumni Association events and meetings
- Vouchers and discounts for local stores

Selection process:
Members are chosen based on scholarship, leadership qualities, campus involvement and their ability to relate the UM experience to alumni, friends prospective students and the University Community. The number of chosen students is based on the available spaces.

Upon submitting an application, applicants will be screened and an interview will be scheduled. Selected candidates will receive an offer from the UM Alumni Association to participate as an Ambassador. Once the selection process is complete, a spring retreat and transition orientation will follow. New Ambassadors will be formally inducted into the UM Alumni Association in the fall.
