

A Shared Commitment

University of Miami students thrive in a diverse, academically robust environment that prepares them for success in an ever-changing world. Your annual gift to the University makes a profound and immediate difference in students' lives, helping them realize dreams that often exceed their financial means.

The University is pleased to acknowledge the generosity of annual gifts from alumni, parents, and friends with membership in the James W. McLamore Society and Royal Palm Society. We invite you to join others who share your belief in the transformative power of a UM education.

James W. McLamore Society

The James W. McLamore Society recognizes annual leadership gifts of $1,000 or more to the University of Miami. Originally called the President's Circle when it was founded in 1994, the McLamore Society was renamed in 2012 to honor the legacy of the former UM Board of Trustees chair and South Florida businessman whose name is synonymous with philanthropy and service.

James W. McLamore, the co-founder of Burger King, was dedicated to promoting education in the community. His impact at the University as chair of the Board of Trustees from 1980 to 1990 and chair of a historic $517.5 million fundraising campaign from 1984 to 1989 is immeasurable. His leadership and tradition of generous support, which spanned nearly 30 years, played an important role in shaping the University of Miami of today. Members of the McLamore Society are an esteemed group of civic and community leaders who are shaping the University of Miami of tomorrow.

Royal Palm Society

The main entrance to the University's Coral Gables campus is lined with a regal fleet of royal palm trees—a hallmark entrance that welcomes the world to a place where life-changing experiences happen every day. The Royal Palm Society welcomes the individuals who make these experiences possible into a distinguished circle of supporters who collectively change the landscape through annual giving.

Each gift at one of the levels below helps the University give scholarships to exceptional students, recruit and retain top faculty-scholars, construct state-of-the-art facilities, and introduce programs that enhance life for people locally and globally. Donors of the Royal Palm Society are the foundation upon which the University of Miami continues to grow.

Royal Palm Society Giving Levels
