SERVICE HONORS POPULAR PROFESSOR
The University of Miami community is invited to honor history professor Dr. Robert Levine at a memorial service from 3:00 -5:00 pm on Monday, April 28 at the Lowe Art Museum. The author of more than two dozen books on Brazil, Cuba and photographic analysis, Dr. Levine died April 1 of complications from brain cancer. After joining UM in 1981, he served as chair of the Department of History, director of the undergraduate Latin American Studies program and as director of the Center for Latin American Studies. He founded the Institute for Public Health in 1992, and in 1999, was named the first Gabelli Senior Scholar in Arts and Sciences. For more information, contact the Center for Latin American Studies at umclas@miami.edu.

THE CIVIC CHORALE OF GREATER MIAMI- ANNUAL ALUMNI REUNION CONCERT
The Civic Chorale of Greater Miami welcomes back alumni for its annual Reunion concert to be held May 3 at 7:00 pm at the University of Miami Maurice Gusman Concert Hall. In addition to alumni performances, the Chorale will perform original music by Mr. Larry Lapin, renowned University of Miami jazz instructor and performer. A highlight of the program will also be the premiere of Dr. Ferdinando De Sena’s choral work, "On These Restive Shores." Other upbeat and lively tunes will be presented by the Chorale in their final concert of the season. Tickets are $10 for adults, $8 for seniors, $5 for students, and free to University of Miami students. They can be purchased at the door, by calling 305.442.8850, or via email at CivicChorale.Music@miami.edu.

SCHOOL OF EDUCATION ANNUAL REPORT NOW ONLINE
The School of Education alumni and friends can find this academic year's annual report online. Just click on the link, 2002 Report, "A Tradition of Excellence." This special issue includes more information than ever before about our wonderful alumni, faculty and students.

The printed issue will be mailed in a few weeks as a special thanks to those alumni who donate to the school during each academic year. However, if you would like to receive a printed copy, please call Marissa Stevenson at 305.284.6119, or e-mail soe@miami.edu.

The big news at the School of Education is our prestigious ranking by U.S. News and World Report. For the second year, we have been named as one of the top graduate schools of education in the nation. In fact, we moved up 13 places to 35th in the nation. A tremendous accomplishment considering the small size of the school compared to other public and private institutions.
