'Canes Care Everywhere!

'Canes Care in Miami
On Saturday May 15, 2004, the University of Miami Alumni Club of Greater Miami will host the ‘Canes Care Cookout prior to the Hurricanes vs. North Carolina Baseball game as part of the UMAA’s community service program. The event will feature food, drinks, and fun for two worthy causes. All proceeds for the event will be divided between Hands on Miami and The Kristy Lasch, BBA ’99, Fund. Kristy is a current University of Miami Student and staff member, suffering from Stage IV Breast Cancer that has metastasized to her liver and lungs. Proceeds from the event will be used to defray some of Kristy’s medical expenses. The cookout will be held in the San Amaro parking lot across from Mark Light Stadium on the Coral Gables campus. Tickets include admission to the BBQ and the Baseball game and are $15 for adults and $12 for children under 12. Tickets for the BBQ can be purchased separately at $10 per person. Tickets must be purchased in advance. To reserve your space, contact Jose Alcaraz, BBA ’80, at 305.460.8005 or email josealcarazcpa@aol.com.

'Canes Care in New York
The Greater New York Alumni Club is pleased to announce this year’s ‘Canes Care community service project, the University Soup Kitchen. The University Soup Kitchen will be a terrific way to give back to the community in a meaningful manner, by serving food to less fortunate members of the community. Join in on the effort to show New York City that ‘Canes Care on May 15, 2004 from 11:45 am -3:30 pm at Church of the Nativity, 44th 2nd Ave., between 2nd & 3rd Streets. For more information or to RSVP, contact Paul A. The Annual Fund’s May 31st deadline is almost here!
We need 3,000 more alumni to make a gift by May 31st to reach 17,000 alumni donors and our 16% participation goal. If you have not done so already, please make a gift today! Not only does your gift provide immediate assistance to our students, your gift can ultimately improve the value of your degree. Alumni participation is one factor used to rank all universities in US News and World Report! We are close to our goal, but can’t make it without you! The deadline is May 31st. Remember, every alumni gift is important, no matter the size!

UM HEADLINES
International Museum Day
The Lowe Art Museum welcomes the community to explore their "Intangible Cultural Heritage," the theme selected by the International Council of Museums for 2004. The Lowe will highlight its diverse collections, which include selections of Native American, European, Pre-Columbian, African, Indian, and Asian art. There will be docent-led tours at 10 am., 12 pm, and 2 pm which provide an overview of the Lowe's collections and current exhibitions. Admission is free, and guests will enjoy a 10% discount off Museum Store purchases for this special day. For more information, call 305.284.3535 or visit the Lowe's Web site.
