The Jean Monnet Chair and the Salvador de Madariaga Institute in cooperation with the Miami European Union Center cordially invite you to a breakfast and round table discussion on:

Spain Today:
Prospects for the Elections (March 14) and Spain’s Role in the European Union

When: Friday, February 6, 8:00-9:15am
Where: University of Miami, Hurricane 100 Club Convocation Center, 1245 Dauer Drive, Coral Gables

Participants:
Chair: Joaquín Roy

Joaquín Almunia and Narcís Serra
Members of the Spanish Congress

Commentaries:
Ambler H. Moss, Jr. and Felipe Agüero,
Professors of International Studies

Please RSVP by Feb. 2 to:
Aimee Kanner
Miami European Union Center
305.284.3266
akanner@miami.edu
JOAQUÍN ALMUNIA AMANN was born in Bilbao (Spain) in 1948. He is married and has two children. He holds a Law and Economics degree from the University of Deusto (Bilbao) and did post-graduate work at L’École Practique des Hautes Études of Paris. He has been an Associate Professor at the University of Alcalá de Henares (Madrid), teaching Employment and Social Security Law, and participated in the “Senior Managers in Government” program at the Kennedy School of Government, Harvard University. Since 1979 he has been a member of the Spanish Parliament, running as Prime Minister candidate for the Spanish Socialist Party. He was the Minister of Employment and Social Security from 1982-1986, and Minister of Public Administration from 1986-1991 in two cabinets of Prime Minister Felipe González. Almunia is the author of Political Memoirs (2001) and a new book on recent Spanish politics to appear this month in Madrid.

NARCIS SERRA was born in Barcelona, Spain, in 1943. In 1965 he graduated in Economics from the University of Barcelona, and studied at London School of Economics and Political Science. In 1976 he was appointed Professor of Economic Theory at the Autonomous University of Barcelona. He was Minister of Public Works of the Autonomous Government of Catalonia (1977-79) and Mayor of Barcelona (79-82). He was Spanish Minister of Defense (1982-1991) and Deputy Prime Minister (91-95). Since 1996 he has been a Member of the Spanish Parliament, and President of the Budget Committee. Since September of 2000 he has been President of the CIDOB Foundation, a think tank dedicated to international relations and teaching. He is an Honorary Fellow of the London School of Economics. In March he is returning to teach Economics at the Autonomous University of Barcelona.
Directions to the UM Convocation Center

Main University Campus, 1245 Dauer Drive, Coral Gables

This is the map provided by the University website to find the Convocation Center. For more information, please call: (305) 284-8686.

Directions for Drivers: Traveling southbound on Ponce de Leon Blvd, make a right turn onto Dauer Drive and proceed straight towards the campus. Dauer Drive is located directly across the street from the University Metro Rail Station. The Convocation Center is directly in front and the parking lot is around the building to the right side. To enter the parking area, proceed around the center to right and then make the first left turn into the open parking area until the end. There you will see a raised white parking barrier. Proceed through the barrier and go left into the private Convocation Center parking area. The Hurricane 100 room is on the right side of the building; its doors are visible from the parking area.

Hurry Cane Shuttle: For those participants arriving by way of the University shuttle, exit at the Sculpture Studio stop and walk northbound Walsh Avenue. The Convocation center will be on the left side of the street and the Hurricane 100 Room is on the right hand side of the building.