The Miami European Union Center, in cooperation with the Jean Monnet Chair and the Salvador de Madariaga Institute, cordially invite you to the guest talk:

Europe in Perplexity: How to Cope with EU’s External Action and the United States

When: Friday, February 27, 12:00 pm

Where: Ferre 126, University of Miami, Coral Gables

Presentation by:
Esther Barbé
Autonomous University of Barcelona
Director, Institute of European Studies

Commentaries:
Bruce Bagley, Professor, Department of International Studies
Joaquín Roy, Director, EU Center

Informal Lunch will be served

Please R.S.V.P.
Aimee Kanner,
Miami European Union Center
305.284.3266/ akanner@miami.edu
Esther Barbé was born in Barcelona, Spain. She is Professor of International Relations and Director of the Institute of European Studies and the Observatory of European Foreign Policy at the Autonomous University of Barcelona. She a graduate in Information Science (Autonomous University of Barcelona), and holds a "Diplôme" in International Relations of the Institut d'Etudes Politiques of Paris, and a Ph.D. in International Relations from the Universidad Complutense of Madrid. Her main areas of expertise are conflict prevention, European Security and Defense Policy, and Spain’s foreign policy. She is a member of the "Research Council" of the "European University Institute" (Fiesole, Italia), of the Council of the "Real Instituto Elcano de Estudios Internacionales y Estratégicos", and served in the advisory boards of the European Journal of International Relations, Foreign Policy, Revista CIDOB d'Afers Internacionals, Papers, Anuario Internacional CIDOB, Spanish Yearbook of International Law, Revista Española de Derecho Internacional, Mediterranean Politics y Revista General de Derecho Europeo, and the series "International Insights – Regard sur l’International" (Peter Lang publishers). She is the author of numerous academic articles and books, among them La política europea de España (Barcelona: Ariel, 1999), España y la OTAN (Barcelona, Laia, 1981) and Relaciones Internacionales (Madrid: Tecnos, 2003), and co-editor of Beyond Enlargement: the New Members and the New Frontiers of the European Union (Autonomous University of Barcelona, 2003).

For a complete CV:
http://selene.uab.es/_cs_iuee/catala/obs/m_presentacion.html

For information about the Institute of European Studies and the Observatory of European Foreign Policy, see web:
http://selene.uab.es/_cs_iuee/