Thanks for Your Support!

The GSA Getting U Connected Forum was definitely a success! Thanks goes to everyone who came out this past Friday and shared in a night of unity. Special thanks goes to our two performers for the night; UM songwriter Matt Rein and also the jazz ensemble Stamps Trio!

Good luck on finals everyone, and have a great holiday! We’ll see you next semester!
Directed Independent Language Study (DILS) is Looking for Native Speakers

Directed Independent Language Study (DILS) is looking for native speakers to serve as Language Partners in the Program for the 2010 spring semester.

Native speakers of the following languages are needed: HAITIAN CREOLE - Levantine Arabic - QUECHUA

A Language Partner is an educated individual who speaks the principal dialect of the target language. Language Partners are not teachers. The Language Partner's role is to provide students with live practice of the target language. Language Partners keep track of student preparedness and performance. The Director of DILS works closely with Language Partners throughout the semester.

Language Partners meet with students for one hour twice a week. The compensation is $80 per week.

For additional information about DILS and about the role and function of the Language Partner please consult the DILS web site at www.as.miami.edu/dils/

Interested individuals should send an expression of interest as soon as possible to Dr. Maria Kosinski, Director of DILS, at mkosinski@miami.edu.
