Alpha Epsilon Lambda is currently accepting nominations and self-nominations!

UM’s Beta Chapter of Alpha Epsilon Lambda (AEL), an honor society for graduate and professional school students, is now accepting nominations and self-nominations for membership.

The deadline is Friday, February 12, 2010.

AEL was founded in 1990 by former officers of the National Association of Graduate-Professional Students (NAGPS) specifically to honor academic excellence and leadership by graduate and professional school students. There are now thirty chapters across the United States. The mission of Alpha Epsilon Lambda is to:

- Confer distinction for high achievement
- Promote leadership development
- Promote scholarship and encourage intellectual development
- Enrich the intellectual environment of graduate educational institutions
- Encourage high standards of ethical behavior

The Beta Chapter of Alpha Epsilon Lambda at the University of Miami was chartered on April 27, 1992. The Beta Chapter selects its members from a pool of nominees who meet the following criteria:

- Is a graduate, law, or medical student, or an alumnus, administrator, faculty or staff member
- Is in the top 35% academically in his/her class
- Has completed a minimum of nine credits towards a graduate degree
- Has shown exemplary leadership and character, including service to the University of Miami graduate student body and service in the public interest at large

For more information and nomination forms, please go to: http://www6.miami.edu/ael or contact AEL at ael@miami.edu
If you are interested in advertising an event open to all graduate students, please e-mail the GSA at gsa@miami.edu by 5pm on Sundays.
