

UNIVERSITY OF MIAMI
LOWE ART MUSEUM

Dear Friends,

I am delighted to share with you news that the Lowe has begun a new cultural tour program, designed specifically for our Members (and don't worry if you're not a Member yet ... you can sign up today by contacting our Membership Coordinator, Yina Balarezo: yaba@miami.edu or 305.284.1540). Our first tour will occur this fall when we will travel to Marfa, Texas. This four-day trip (Thursday, October 20 – Sunday, October 23, 2016) will take us to one of the true pilgrimage sites for connoisseurs of contemporary art and culture: the Chinati Foundation, a living museum that embodies Donald Judd's extraordinary aesthetic and artistic vision. From our home base in downtown Marfa (where we will be staying at the brand new Hotel Saint George, a 55-room boutique hotel), we will visit not only Chinati but also the Judd Foundation as well as local artists' studios and/or contemporary galleries. We will also be making evening outings to see the famed "Marfa lights" and to enjoy a private "Star Party" at the McDonald Observatory. See the full trip details, including itinerary and reservation form, here:

Space is extremely limited and the deadline for deposits is April 1—so don't delay in signing up! Our Membership Coordinator, Yina Balarezo (yaba@miami.edu or 305.284.1540), would be happy to help you with questions about Lowe Membership and/or our Marfa tour.

I will look forward to seeing you at the Lowe ... and perhaps in Marfa! Sending you my best wishes and my thanks for your ongoing support of the Lowe,

Jill
