

Internship Opportunities

The mission of the American Lung Association® is to prevent lung disease and promote lung health.

- Come intern with the oldest voluntary health organization in the United States
- Acquire real on-the-job experience through our shadow based internships
- Attend meetings, presentations, events and much more

Development /Special Events Internship

This student will assist the Director of Special Events with the various non-profit operations, development of special events activities. Some student experience will include work with event planning, management, donor development, membership management, database management, fundraising and event logistics. Students will work with media outlets, press releases, minor graphic design work and volunteer management.

Public Relations Internship

This student will assist with all public relations duties associated with our office. Development and distribution of press releases, contact person for media relations, respond to legislative issues, market our campaigns and much more.

Programming Internship

This student will assist the Program Director with implementation of the various mission related activities of the Orlando office. This includes programs in elementary and high schools that combat Asthma and Teen Smoking. This student will be trained as an instructor of the national "Open Airways for Schools" program. Student experience will include health care issue management, volunteer management, community awareness campaigns and public advocacy.

Executive Internship

This student will work directly with the Executive Director, and work on all activities of the ALA. They will attend presentations, board meetings, events, etc. This student will work on fundraising, programming, advocacy issues and much more.

* A $500 Stipend is offered for those students completing the program.

Please submit resumes to Eric Gray at egray@alacf.org or by Fax 407.425.2876

American Lung Association of Florida–Central Florida
1333 West Colonial Drive • Orlando, FL 32804
407-425-LUNG (5864) • 1-800-LUNG USA